Executive Order

Mrs. Rose Pauly may be appointed to an appropriate position in the classified service of the Treasury Department without compliance with the requirements of the civil service rules.

Mrs. Pauly is the widow of George Pauly who served as a pressman in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing from March 13, 1903, to February 13, 1925, when he was retired on account of disability. Mr. Pauly died on July 11, 1927, leaving Mrs. Pauly with two minor children and herself to support.

This Order is recommended by the Secretary of the Treasury as an especially meritorious and charitable case.

The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur.

For charity.
