Executive Order

Mrs. Mary P. Towle may be appointed as clerk in the Boston post office without regard to the requirements of the civil service rules. Mrs. Towle is the widow of Charles E. Towle, for twenty-six years an employee of the Boston post office, who died December 1, 1927, leaving her with limited means and with a daughter who is not entirely self-supporting.

This order is issued on recommendation of the Acting Postmaster General. The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur.

For charity.
