Executive Order

Mrs. Dawn J. Sutton may be appointed to an appropriate position in the Post Office Department or the field service thereof without regard to the civil service rules.

Mrs. Sutton is the widow of Ernest R. Sutton, for more than fifteen years an employee of the Post Office Department, who died on December 27, 1926, leaving her with a young daughter who is not self-supporting.

This order is issued upon the recommendation of the Postmaster General. The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur.

For charity.
