Executive Order

PATHFINDER BIRD REFUGE

WYOMING

It is hereby ordered that the Pathfinder Reservation for the protection of native birds, created by Executive Order, No. 1032, of February 25, 1909, and abolished by Executive Order, No. 3725, of August 18, 1922, is hereby reestablished with its original boundaries, as indicated by the broken line upon the diagram hereto attached and made a part of this order, for use by the Department of Agriculture as a refuge and breeding ground for native birds.

All of the lands involved have been withdrawn for reclamation purposes in connection with the North Platte Project, Wyoming, and are primarily under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior. The reservation of these lands as a bird refuge is subject to the use thereof by said Department, including leasing for grazing, and to any other valid existing rights.

It is unlawful, within this reservation, (a) wilfully to set on fire or cause to be set on fire any timber, underbrush, or grass; (b) wilfully to leave or suffer fire to burn unattended near any timber or other inflammable material; (c) after building a fire in or near any forest, timber, or other inflammable material, to leave it without totally extinguishing it; (d) to hunt, trap, capture, wilfully disturb or kill any wild animal, or bird of any kind whatever, or take or destroy the eggs of any wild bird, except under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture; and (e) wilfully to injure, molest, or destroy any property of the United States.

Warning is expressly given to all persons not to commit any of the acts herein enumerated, under the penalties prescribed by sections 52, 53 and 84, as amended April 15, 1924, of the United States Penal Code.

This refuge shall be known as the Pathfinder Bird Refuge.
