Executive Order

Mrs. Theraesa L. Irwin may be appointed to a clerkship in the Boston, Massachusetts, post office, without regard to the requirements of the civil service rules.

Mrs. Irwin is the widow of George C. Irwin, for more than seventeen years an employee of the Boston post office, who died on December 26, 1923, leaving her without funds and making it necessary that she earn a livelihood for herself and a minor child.

This Order is issued upon the recommendation of the Postmaster General. As the Civil Service Commission is limited in its recommendations for waivers to those cases where the needs of the service can not be met by the regular procedure under the rules, it does not concur.

For charity.
