Executive Order

Mrs. Genevieve G. Meehan may be appointed to a clerical position in the classified service under the Federal Trade Commission without regard to the civil service rules.

Mrs. Meehan is the widow of Charles V. Meehan, formerly Judge of the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia, who at death left her without adequate resources. She has rendered several years of satisfactory and efficient service along statistical lines in various branches of the government.

This order is issued upon the recommendation of the Federal Trade Commission. The Civil Service Commission cannot concur, its recommendations for waivers being limited to those cases where the needs of the service cannot be met under the usual procedure under the rules.

For charity.
