Executive Order

Establishing Defensive Sea Area.

In accordance with the authority vested in me by section forty-four of the act entitled "An act to codify, revise, and amend the penal laws of the United States," approved March fourth, nineteen hundred and nine, as amended by the act "Making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and for other purposes," approved March fourth, nineteen hundred and seventeen, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, do order that the defensive sea area at Chesapeake Entrance and the defensive sea area at Hampton Roads established by executive order under date of April fifth, nineteen hundred and seventeen be hereby abolished.

No 3027

And, further, I do order established, subject to the same disclaimer of responsibility for damage inflicted as proclaimed in said order of April fifth, nineteen hundred and seventeen, a defensive sea area to be maintained until further notification, at the place and within the limits described as follows; that is to say—

Lower Chesapeake:

Outer Limit—Line parallel to that joining Cape Henry Light and Cape Charles Light and four (4) nautical miles to eastward thereof, and the lines from Cape Charles Light and from Cape Henry Light perpendicular to this line.

Inner Limits—Line tangent to end of wharf on west side of Old Point Comfort and Fort Wool, and a line running from Back River Light through the Light vessel marking the southern end of the thirty-five foot cut known as the Baltimore Channel, thence to the eastern shore of Virginia.

And I do further order that the "Regulations for Carrying into Effect the Executive Order of the President Establishing Defensive Sea Areas," approved by me April fifth, nineteen hundred and seventeen, duly promulgated and published, are and shall be considered as of full effect and binding on all persons and vessels within the limits of the defensive sea area hereby established.

The designated points for ships entering and leaving the defensive sea area herein established shall be as follows:

Eastern Limit—Chesapeake Bay Main Ship Channel Entrance Buoy.

Western Limit—In channel to Northwestward of entrance buoy of dredged channel, Elizabeth River.

Northern Limit—Light vessel marking the southern end of the thirty-five foot cut known as the Baltimore Channel, thence to the eastern shore of Virginia.

WOODROW WILSON
