Whereas, The Black Hills Forest Reserve in the State of South Dakota was established on February twenty-second, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, by Executive Proclamation, under and by virtue of the authority contained in Section twenty-four of the Act of Congress, approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, entitled, "An act to repeal timber-culture laws, and for other purposes", which provides, "That the President of the United States may, from time to time, set apart and reserve, in any State or Territory having public land bearing forests, in any part of the public lands wholly or in part covered with timber or undergrowth, whether of commercial value or not, as public reservations, and the President shall, by public proclamation, declare the establishment of such reservations and the limits thereof";

And whereas, it is further provided by the Act of Congress, approved June fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled, "An act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and for other purposes", that "The President is hereby authorized at any time to modify any Executive order that has been or may hereafter be made establishing any forest reserve, and by such modification may reduce the area or change the boundary lines of such reserve, or may vacate altogether any order creating such reserve";

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, by virtue of the power in me vested by the aforesaid Act of Congress, approved June fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, do hereby revoke the said Executive Proclamation dated February twenty-second, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, as to the south-west quarter of the south-west quarter of Section twenty-six (26), and the north half of the north-west quarter and the North-west quarter of the north-east quarter of Section thirty-five (35), in Township one (1) North, Range three (3) East, Black Hills Meridian, South Dakota, and said lands are hereby released from reservation.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
October 31, 1903.
