Executive Order.

The Executive Order made October 30, 1907, in behalf of Mr. John P. Scruggs, and reading as follows:

> "Mr. John P. Scruggs having been separated from the positon of Deputy Collector in the Internal Revenue District of South Carolina for more than one year, upon charges of misconduct, which charges a careful investigation has shown to have been substantially unfounded, and Mr. Scruggs' service to have been honest and efficient, he may be reappointed in the Internal Revenue Service without compliance with the Civil Service Rules."

is hereby, on the report of the Civil Service Commission, confirmed.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,
