Executive Order

CHEYENNE NATIONAL FOREST

WYOMING

It is hereby ordered that on and after July 1, 1908, the land within the boundaries shown on the attached diagram, heretofore set apart, reserved, and proclaimed as the Crow Creek National Forest and a part of the Medicine Bow National Forest, shall be known as the Cheyenne National Forest. The remaining portions of the Medicine Bow National Forest shall continue reserved and constitute the Medicine Bow National Forest in Colorado, and parts of the Arapaho and Pike National Forests in Colorado. It is not intended by this order to interfere with, or disturb the rights which the War Department has under existing executive orders in the Crow Creek National Forest, which will form part of the Cheyenne National Forest; nor is it intended to release any land from reservation or to reserve any land not heretofore embraced in a National Forest.
