Executive Order

MONTEZUMA NATIONAL FOREST

COLORADO

It is hereby ordered that on and after July 1, 1908, the land within the boundaries shown on the attached diagram, heretofore set apart, reserved, and proclaimed as parts of the Montezuma and Ouray National Forests, shall be known as the Montezuma National Forest. The remaining portions of the Montezuma National Forest, with the exception of the areas indicated on the attached diagram as eliminations, shall continue reserved and constitute parts of the San Juan and Uncompahgre National Forests. It is not intended by this order to release any land from reservation, except the areas indicated as eliminated, on the attached diagram, or to reserve any land not heretofore embraced in a National Forest.

The Lands hereby excluded from the Montezuma National Forest which are not embraced in withdrawals for administrative sites for use in the management of the Forest, or in any other reservation, or appropriation, shall be restored to the public domain and become subject to settlement under the general provisions of the homestead laws on such date and after such notice by publication as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, but shall not become subject to entry, filing, selection, or other form of appropriation until the expiration of thirty days from the date so fixed, and no person will be permitted to gain or exercise any right whatever under any settlement or occupation begun prior to such date, and all such settlement and occupation are hereby forbidden.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE.
