1030

Executive Order.

It is hereby ordered that the following described tract of land in Alaska, situate about ½ a mile northwest of Copper Center, 103 miles from tide water, and 140 miles from the mouth of Copper River, in an angle between Copper and Klutina Rivers, to wit:

> "Beginning at a point on the right bank of Copper River about 1000 feet north from the Klutina River where it empties into Copper River; thence westerly parallel with Klutina River to a point one mile and a quarter from Copper River, which point is about 1000 feet from the north bank of Klutina River; thence north one mile to a point on a high bluff about ¾ of a mile from Copper River; thence east 4620 feet to the right bank of Copper River; thence down the right bank of Copper River to the place of beginning," containing about 775 acres, together with the buildings thereon, be, and the same are hereby reserved, for the joint use of the Department of the Interior and the Department of Agriculture, for educational and agricultural experiment station purposes.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,
February 24, 1909.

[No. 1030.]