Executive Order

It is hereby ordered that all of the unappropriated public lands upon Petit Bois Island, situated in the Gulf of Mexico, approximately ten miles south of the Alabama and Mississippi coast, and in townships nine and ten south, ranges three and four west of St. Stephens Meridian, as segregated by the broken line upon the diagram hereto attached and made a part of this order, are hereby reserved and set apart for the use of the Department of Agriculture as a preserve and breeding ground for native birds. It is unlawful for any person to hunt, trap, capture, wilfully disturb or kill any bird of any kind whatever, or take the eggs of such bird within the limits of this reservation, except under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. Warning is expressly given to all persons not to commit any of the acts herein enumerated, under the penalties of Section 84, United States Criminal Code, approved March 4, 1909 (35 Stat., 1088).

This reserve to be known as Petit Bois Island Reservation.
