2003

Executive Order.

Any officer who is separated from the diplomatic or consular service for the purpose of accepting an appointment as Commercial Attaché under the Department of Commerce, shall upon his retirement from the position of Commercial Attaché, with a satisfactory record for conduct and efficiency, be reinstated without examination in the branch of the service from which he was separated.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
28 July, 1914.

[No. 2003.]