Executive Order.

Edward A. Savoy may be promoted from the position of Chief Messenger to a clerkship in the classified executive civil service of the State Department without reference to the requirements of the Civil Service Rules.

This order is issued on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, because of the long and faithful service of Edward Savoy, who was appointed a Page in the State Department in 1869, and has since been promoted to be assistant messenger, messenger and chief messenger in the Department.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
