Executive Order

PLUMAS NATIONAL FOREST

CALIFORNIA

Under authority of the Act of Congress approved June 4, 1897 (30 Stat., 11, 34–36), and on the recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture, it is hereby ordered that the boundaries of the Plumas National Forest as modified by the Proclamation of July 28, 1910, be further modified by eliminating therefrom the following described land, in the State of California:

In T. 25 N., R. 9 E., Sec. 22: SE¼ NW¼;

Mount Diablo Meridian.

And it appearing proper and necessary, in the interest of equal opportunity and good administration, that all of such excluded land subject to disposition should be restored to entry in advance of settlement, it is hereby ordered, pursuant to the authority reposed in me by the Act of September 30, 1913 (38 Stat., 113), that such land, subject to valid rights, shall be open to entry only for a period of twenty-eight days from and including 9 o'clock a. m., standard time, on the fifty-sixth day from and after the date of this order, and thereafter to disposition under any and all of the public land laws applicable thereto.
