2159

Executive Order

Mr. John D. Campbell may be reinstated to a position in the Railway Mail Service without regard to the length of time he has been separated from the service.

Mr. Campbell was appointed a clerk in the Railway Mail Service on October 29, 1887, classified with that service on May 1, 1889, as a clerk at $1000 per annum, and resigned November 3, 1902, on account of his impaired physical condition. It appears that he has now fully recovered his health. The Postmaster General states that his services were satisfactory to the Department during his fifteen years' service and that the Department will interpose no objection to his reinstatement through the issuance of an Executive Order.

The Civil Service Commission does not recommend this order.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,

6 April, 1915.

[No. 2159.]