2322

Executive Order.

It is Hereby Ordered, that the following-described tract of land near Aibonito, Porto Rico, heretofore by Executive Order of June 30, 1903, issued under the authority of the Act of July 1, 1902 (32 Statutes at Large, 731), reserved from the public domain of Porto Rico and placed under the control of the War Department for an army barracks, be, and the same is hereby, transferred from the control of the War Department and placed under the control of the Navy Department for use as a naval radio station and for other naval purposes:

All that piece or parcel of land situate just east of the town of Aibonito, Porto Rico, where the barracks now stand, and which is bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a stone set in the ground

S 23° 51′ E (true bearing) 128.4 feet from the southeasterly corner of the stonework of said barracks building, and running thence on a true westerly course 640.3 feet to a stone;

thence on a true northerly course 274.2 feet;

thence on a true easterly course 640.3 feet;

thence on a true southerly course 274.2 feet to the point of beginning;

Containing 175,570 square feet, more or less.

WOODROW WILSON

The White House,

21 February, 1916.

[No. 2322.]