2458

Executive Order.

Inter-Departmental Board on International Service of Ice Observation, Ice Patrol, and Ocean Derelict Destruction.

The Secretary of the Treasury having, in cooperation with the Secretaries of other Departments, organized an informal committee for the purpose of arranging for scientific observation during the cruises of Coast Guard cutters detailed for international ice patrol in the North Atlantic, the members of this committee are hereby designated as members of an inter-departmental board. This board consists of the Captain Commandant of the Coast Guard (Treasury Department), the Hydrographer (Navy Department), the Chief of the Weather Bureau (Department of Agriculture), the Director of the Bureau of Standards, and the Deputy Commissioner of the Bureau of Fisheries, (Department of Commerce).

It shall be the duty of this board to—

(a) Prepare a systematic program for the work in connection with the international service of ice observation, ice patrol and ocean derelict destruction, undertaken by the United States, especially that part which pertains to observations and related scientific work,
(b) Direct the scientific observers, receive their reports and prepare the same for publication,
(c) Make recommendation for such special appropriations or legislation as may be necessary.

A complete record and minutes of the proceedings of this board shall be kept, and such recommendations of the board which involve special appropriations or additional legislation will be submitted to the President for appropriate executive action.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
20 Sept., 1916.

[No. 2458.]