2483

Executive Order.

In view of the provision of the Diplomatic and Consular Appropriation Act of July 1, 1916, creating the grade of Counselor in the American diplomatic service the following changes are made in the instructions of 1897 to diplomatic officers and the Consular Regulations of December 3, 1896.

DIPLOMATIC.

Instructions to Diplomatic Officers, paragraph 42, page 17, add as an additional paragraph:

"Counselors rank after the head of the mission and before the first secretary of embassy or legation."

CONSULAR.

Consular Regulations, paragraph 111, page 173. Amend second section, paragraph one as modified by Executive Order of January 3, 1908, so as to read as follows:

"Consuls general rank next after Counselors, and on occasions, other than purely diplomatic functions, rank with, but next before, First Secretaries of Embassy."
