2493

Executive Order.

Paragraph 486 of the Consular Regulations of 1896 is hereby amended to read as follows:

486. RECORD OF NOTARIAL AND OTHER SERVICES.—Each notarial act, oath, affidavit, affirmation, deposition, authentication and every other service rendered by any officer of the consulate or consular agency formerly known as unofficial or personal, whether feed or gratis, shall be completely and truly recorded in the Record of Fees Book, chronologically entered together with all other services, such as certification of invoices, landing certificates, bills of health, et cetera, and showing the fees charged, collected or accepted therefor. Any expense incurred by a consular officer in connection with the performance of a notarial or other service outside of the consular office shall be noted on the margin of the Record of Fees Book.

A sworn, line for line, transcript of the Record of Fees Book on Forms Nos. 101a and 101, together with a duplicate copy of the recapitulation of fees on form No. 101, shall be forwarded to the Department of State with the other necessary accounts and returns of the office at the end of each quarter or fractional quarter. The use of the Notarial and Miscellaneous Fee Book and of Form No. 159 should be discontinued.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
24 November, 1916.

[No. 2493.]