Executive Order

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of the Act entitled "An Act To provide a temporary government for the West Indian Islands acquired by the United States from Denmark by the convention entered into between said countries on the fourth day of August, nineteen hundred and sixteen, and ratified by the Senate of the United States on the seventh day of September, nineteen hundred and sixteen, and for other purposes", approved March 3, 1917, it is directed that on April first, 1917, the sum of $100,000 appropriated in said Section 6 be placed to the credit of Rear Admiral James H. Oliver, U. S. Navy, Governor of the Virgin Islands of the United States, to be expended in his discretion for all necessary expenses in connection with the taking over and occupying said islands and of carrying the above mentioned Act into effect and to meet any deficit in the revenues of the said Islands resulting from the provisions of said Act; and this money shall be available for meeting the expenses of fitting up and maintaining the residences and establishment of the Governor in said Islands under such limitations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy upon the recommendation of the Governor.
