Executive Order

LINCOLN—ALAMO NATIONAL FORESTS

NEW MEXICO

Under authority of the Act of Congress of June 4, 1897 (30 Stat., 11), and upon recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture, it is hereby ordered that on after July 1, 1917, all the lands included within the boundaries of the Alamo National Forest, New Mexico, as fixed and defined by proclamation of April 3, 1916, (No. 1330), be transferred to and administered as a part of the Lincoln National Forest, New Mexico.

39 Stat. 1774

It is intended by this Executive Order, for economy of administration, to merge into one National Forest, thereafter to be known as the Lincoln National Forest, all the lands which on July 1, 1917, are within the Alamao and the Lincoln National Forests, and the boundaries of the Lincoln National Forest, as they exist at that date, are hereby modified accordingly.

This Executive Order is not intended to add to the Lincoln National Forest any lands which on July 1, 1917, are not embraced within the Alamo National Forest, nor to release from reservation for National Forest purposes any lands at that date within the Alamo National Forest.
