Executive Order

transferring to the service and jurisdiction of the War Department an official of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey.

In accordance with the authority vested in me by the "Act to temporarily increase the commissioned and warrant and enlisted strength of the Navy and Marine Corps and for other purposes", approved May 22, 1917, I, WOODROW WILSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby declare that a national emergency exists and do direct that Edwin Herbert Pagenhart, Hydrographic and Geodetic Engineer of the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, be transferred to the service and jurisdiction of the War Department and I do hereby appoint and direct that he be commissioned and ordered to active duty as of date of this order, in the Engineer Officers' Reserve Corps in the grade of Captain.

The War Department shall return to the service and jurisdiction of the Department of Commerce the official of the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, transferred by this order, when directed by me so to do.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
20 May, 1918.
