2864

Executive Order

Under authority contained in act of Congress approved March 4, 1917 (Public No. 391), wherein it is provided:

That in case of national emergency the President is authorized to suspend provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours labor in any one day of persons engaged upon work covered by contracts with the United States: Provided further, That the wages of persons employed upon such contracts shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours work with overtime rates to be paid for at not less than time and one-half for all hours of work in excess of eight hours, it is hereby ordered that during the present national emergency the provisions of law limiting the hours of daily service of mechanics and laborers to eight hours in any one day, on work under contracts to which the United States is a party, are suspended with respect to contracts in connection with the Reclamation Service, Department of the Interior, wages and overtime rates to be computed in the manner provided by said act of Congress.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
24 May, 1918.

[No. 2864.]

Labor - Eight-hour law