1902

Executive Order

In order to effect the more expeditious erection and completion of a new building for the Coast and Geodetic Survey, Department of Commerce, in which are to be located certain activities engaged on work in connection with war measures, making the completion of the building a national emergency, and by virtue of the provisions of the act of Congress approved March 4, 1917, entitled "An act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, and for other purposes" (39 Stat., 1192), whereby, among other things, it is provided "That in case of national emergency the President is authorized to suspend provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours labor in any one day of persons engaged upon work covered by contracts with the United States: Provided further, That the wages of persons employed upon such contracts shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours work, with overtime rates to be paid for at not less than time and one-half for all hours work in excess of eight hours," I do hereby suspend the provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours of labor in any one day by persons, firms, or corporations engaged in the erection and completion of the above mentioned building. This order will take effect from and after this date.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
3 July, 1918.

[No. 2902.]

Labor - Eight Hour Law