(4) The following Trade-Mark:

Registration No.	Date	Trade Mark
80,647	February 7, 1911	"H"

Said patents, applications for patent, and trade mark being sold subject to the rights therein, if any, of the said International Textile, Incorporated.

Which said property was held by the Alien Property Custodian, and at said sale Frank Miller having bid the sum of $1,212,000.00, which was the highest bid received for said property,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, That the Alien Property Custodian be, and he is authorized, and shall have the right to reject all bids at said sale, including the bid of the said Frank Miller, and to resell such property in accordance with the provisions of the said "Trading with the Enemy Act," as amended, and the Executive Orders and proclamations issued pursuant thereto.

3016-H

The reason for the foregoing order is that upon investigation by the Alien Property Custodian it has developed that the highest bid made at said sale was for and on account of persons whose names were not disclosed as provided by the law and said bid is therefore not in accordance with law and should not be accepted.

Done in the District of Columbia, this 15th day of March, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Nineteen.
