3019.

Executive Order.

WHEREAS, the present emergency has created a condition whereby large quantities of office material, supplies, and equipment now in the hands of the executive departments and other establishments of the government in the District of Columbia will fall into disuse because of the cessation of war activities, or for other reasons, it hereby is ordered that all such office materials, supplies, and equipment not required for use by the executive departments and independent establishments be transferred hereafter to the Secretary of the Treasury, to be handled through the General Supply Committee for the benefit of the municipal government and the governmental service in the District of Columbia in the following manner:

1. The several executive departments and independent establishments and the municipal government in the District of Columbia shall not purchase any of the classes of material described herein unless the Secretary of the Treasury has certified that there is not in the possession of the government material, equipment, or supplies that are serviceable.

2. No executive department, independent establishment, or the municipal government of the District of Columbia shall be permitted to obtain any of the classes of material, supplies, and equipment described herein from the Secretary of the Treasury unless such services have an appropriation available for the procurement thereof.

3. All material obtained from the Secretary of the Treasury shall be paid for by transfer of appropriation from the purchasing service to the selling service and the proceeds covered into the Treasury in accordance with existing law.

4. All material, supplies, and equipment purchased hereunder by one service from another, if the same has not been used, shall be sold at actual cost, and if the same has been used, at a cost based upon length of usage, but in no instance to be less than seventy-five per centum of cost.

5. Material of the classes herein described which is condemned as unfit for use may be disposed of otherwise than to governmental services by the Secretary of the Treasury. And usable material remaining unsold to other services of the government shall be held by him for disposition by law.

6. The Secretary of the Treasury shall keep a record of all material received and disposed of by him hereunder and the price at which disposed of and shall prescribe the regulations necessary to carry this order into effect.

7. This order shall supersede the Executive Order of November 29, 1918, dealing with the same subject-matter.
