Executive Order

WHEREAS, by Executive Order dated 3 July 1918 certain activities then being carried on by the Federal Trade Commission relating to the coal industry were transferred to the United States Fuel Administration, together with the records, files, reports, copies of contracts, correspondence and proceedings on file in respect to such activities, and whereas that part of the personnel of said Commission then engaged in said activities was by said Order detailed and assigned to said Fuel Administration; and whereas said Order provided that it should be and remain in full force and effect until amended, modified or rescinded; and whereas it now appears that owing to the lessening of the activities of the Fuel Administration following the signing of the Armistice the services of some of the personnel so detailed and assigned and some of the records, files, reports, copies of contracts, correspondence and proceedings so transferred will from time to time cease to be required by said Fuel Administration.

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Chief Executive and, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Act of Congress, entitled, "An Act authorizing the President to coordinate or consolidate executive bureaus, agencies and offices, and for other purposes, in the interest of economy and the more efficient concentration of the Government", approved May 20, 1918, do hereby order and direct that said Executive Order dated 3 July, 1918 be and it hereby is amended and modified by adding at the end thereof the following clause, to wit:

"Such records, files, reports, copies of contracts, correspondence and proceedings transferred under this order and such personnel detailed or assigned thereunder as are stated in a written notice to the Secretary of the Federal Trade Commission signed by the United States Fuel Administrator or the Assistant United States Fuel Administrator, to be no longer required by the United States Fuel Administration, shall be and they hereby are retransferred and reassigned to said Commission as of the date or dates fixed in said written notice."
