Executive Order.

Order of withdrawal.

Amended

With the consent of the Government of the Territory of Hawaii, it is hereby ordered that the following described tract of land, lying between the present seaward boundary of the Military Reservation of Fort DeRussy (situated in Kalia, Waikiki, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii), as defined in General Order No. 20, War Department, 1916, and the seaward face of the new seawall, be, and the same is hereby, withdrawn and set aside for military purposes.

1. Beginning at monument No. 20, marked by a brass plate set in the center of the above mentioned new seawall, said seawall being approximately 2 feet wide on top, said monument being a boundary monument of the above mentioned military reservation as described in said General Order: from said monument No. 20 (from this point to monument No. 31 hereinafter described, the traverse follows the center of the above mentioned seawall, while the boundary follows the seaward face of said seawall)

119° 50′ 00″—405.46 feet to monument No. 21, marked by a brass plate: thence

123° 11′ 00″—100.00 feet to monument No. 22, marked by a brass plate: thence

129° 46′ 00″—100.00 feet to monument No. 23, marked by a brass plate: thence
