Executive Order

WHEREAS, in order to carry out a plan for rendering financial assistance to the Czecho-Slovak military forces in Siberia, a Special Committee, consisting of Mr. Bernard M. Baruch, Mr. Edward N. Hurley, and Mr. Vance C. McCormick, was appointed by me; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Baruch, Mr. Hurley, and Mr. McCormick have signified that their services in this connection are no longer required; and

WHEREAS, the disbursement of funds, in payment for the obligations incurred by the Czecho-Slovak Republic, with the approval of the Special Committee, deposited in the Central Union Trust Company of New York, is subject to the countersignature by such person as may be designated by two of the three members of the Committee named herein;

NOW THEREFORE, I hereby order and direct that all files, accounts, and any other data be turned over to the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of State or his nominee is hereby authorized to countersign checks against the aforementioned funds and to otherwise discharge the duties and activities heretofore discharged by the Committee.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
