Executive Order.

The Executive Order of June 27, 1906, governing appointments and promotions in the consular service is hereby amended as follows:

Paragraph 1 is amended to read:

1. Vacancies in the office of consul general and in the office of consul above class six shall be filled by promotion from the lower grades of the consular service, based upon ability and efficiency as shown in the service, provided, however, that, whenever the good of the service requires, consuls of classes three, four and five to serve as assistants to consuls general in economic investigational work may be appointed from among candidates who shall have successfully passed an examination equivalent in character to that prescribed by the Civil Service Commission for Economist in addition to the usual oral examination for the consular service; but consuls so specially chosen shall in no case exceed a total number of twenty-five and shall not be eligible for promotion to the higher grades of the consular service until they shall have served satisfactorily at least four years in responsible charge of consulates of class three, four or five. Consuls already in the service of class six or above who have demonstrated their ability to perform the character of economic work required shall be given preference over specially chosen candidates.

Paragraph 2 is amended to read:

2. Vacancies in the office of Consul of class six and class seven shall be filled—

(a) By promotion on the basis of ability and efficiency as shown in the service of vice consuls, consular assistants and interpreters in the diplomatic or consular service who shall have been appointed to such offices upon examination.

(b) By new appointments of candidates who have passed a satisfactory examination for appointment as consul as hereafter provided.

Paragraph 3 is amended by substituting for the words "above class 8 of consuls" the words "above class 3 of Vice Consuls" so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

"Persons in the service of the Department of State with salaries of two thousand dollars or upwards shall be eligible for promotion on the basis of ability and efficiency as shown in the service, to any grade of the Consular Service above class 3 of vice consuls."

Paragraph 9 is amended by substituting for the first sentence the following:

"Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the sixth or seventh class of consuls which the President may deem it expedient to fill, the Secretary of State shall inform the Board of Examiners, who shall certify to him the list of those persons eligible for appointment, accomapnying the certificate with a detailed report showing the qualifications, as revealed by examination, of the persons so certified."
