By virtue of the authority vested in me by "An act to define, regulate and punish trading with the enemy, and for other purposes", approved October 6, 1917, known as the "Trading with the Enemy Act", and the amendment to such act embodied in "An act making appropriations to supply urgent deficiencies in appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, and prior fiscal years on account of war expenses and for other purposes", approved March 28, 1918, and the amendment to such act embodied in "An act making appropriations to supply deficiencies in appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, and prior fiscal years on account of war expenses and for other purposes", approved November 4, 1918, to make certain orders such as that herein contained, and all other powers and authorities me hereto enabling, I do hereby make the following determination and order:

Also all rights, interests and benefits inuring to or conferred upon Rudolph Chillingworth under and by a certain license granted, dated March 9, 1914, between said Rudolph Chillingworth Manufacturing Company, granting to said company an exclusive license for the United States under said letters patent of the United States No. 873297, dated December 10, 1907.

AND WHEREAS, the highest bid received for said stock and property was $100 for the stock, $1.00 for patent and $15,000.00 for satisfaction of indebtedness, which bid was made by Thayer & Company.
