Executive Order

WHEREAS an act, entitled "An Act to authorize the President to provide housing for war needs", approved May 16, 1918, conferred certain authority upon the President to be exercised "through such agency or agencies as he may create or designate"; and

WHEREAS, by the Urgent Deficiency Appropriation Act, approved June 4, 1918, the President was authorized, "if in his judgment such action is deemed necessary or advantageous" to "authorize the creation of a corporation or corporations for the purpose of carrying out" the provisions of the Housing Act aforesaid; and

WHEREAS, by Executive Order No. 2889, dated June 18, 1918, the President directed that the Secretary of Labor should have and exercise all power and authority vested in the President by the said Housing Act; and, by Executive Order No. 2985-A, dated October 29, 1918, approved the organization of the United States Housing Corporation, created under authority of the Urgent Deficiency Appropriation Act aforesaid, and designated the "said corporation as an agency through which the Secretary of Labor may exercise the power and authority conferred upon him by Executive Order dated June 18, 1918"; and

WHEREAS, under the authority of said Acts, there were constructed certain buildings on naval reservations, that is to say at the Naval Proving Ground, at Indian Head, Maryland; at the Naval Ordnance Plant, at South Charleston, West Virginia; and a hotel at the Puget Sound Navy Yard, at Bremerton, Washington; and certain land was purchased by the United States Housing Corporation adjoining the said hotel for the purpose of affording light and air thereto; and

WHEREAS, in my judgment, it is advantageous that the said buildings and land should be transferred from the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Labor, and the United States Housing Corporation as his agent, to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Navy;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WOODROW WILSON, President of the United States, under authority vested in me by the said Housing Act hereby direct that the power and authority heretofore exercised over the buildings and land hereinbefore specified, by the Secretary of Labor and the United States Housing Corporation, under and by virtue of the Executive Orders above mentioned, shall hereafter be exercised by the Secretary of the Navy, and that so much of the said Executive Orders as is inconsistent herewith be, and it is hereby revoked.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
29 June, 1920.
