Executive Order.

In pursuance of the Act of Congress approved June 18, 1888, making inauguration day a legal holiday within the District of Columbia, it is hereby ordered that all per diem employees and other day laborers in the federal public service employed in the District of Columbia be excused from work on Friday, March 4, 1921.

Provided, however, That this order shall not apply to any bureau or office of the Government, or to any of the clerks or other employees thereof, that may for special public reasons be excepted therefrom by the head of the Department having supervision or control of such bureau or office, or where the same would be inconsistent with the provisions of existing law.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
