Executive Order

AN EXECUTIVE ORDER RELATING TO ROUND TRIP CRUISES FROM AMERICAN PORTS OR CRUISES FROM ONE AMERICAN PORT TO ANOTHER.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by "An Act to Prevent in Time of War Departure From and Entry Into the United States Contrary to the Public Safety," approved May 22, 1918, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, hereby order:

(1) Hereafter passports, identity cards, permits, or similar documents will not be required of American citizens leaving the United States on American vessels on a cruise departing from an American port and returning thereto, or departing from one American port destined to another, provided the Americans do not break the voyage at any port of call, but continue to the port of final destination of the vessel upon which they embark.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
15 February, 1921.

[No. 3407.]
