3588

Executive Order

ALASKA — Education

It is hereby ordered that Executive Order of May 4, 1907, temporarily withdrawing, pending survey and segregation by the General Land Office, tracts of land in certain described places in the District of Alaska not to exceed 40 acres, for educational purposes, be revoked in so far as it affects tracts in the following described places:

ON SEWARD PENINSULA

Deering: on the south shore of Kotzebue sound, east of Cape Deceit, near latitude 66°, longitude 163°;

Council: northeast of Nome, on Niukluk river, latitude 65°, longitude 164°;

ON THE YUKON RIVER

Anvik: a mile above the junction of the Anvik river with the Yukon near latitude 62° 30′, longitude 160°;

ON THE NUSHAGAK RIVER

Nushagak: at the mouth of the Nushagak river, near latitude 59°, longitude 158°;

IN SOUTHERN ALASKA

Afognak: on Afognak Bay, Afognak Island, latitude 58°, longitude 153°;

Petersburg: on Wrangell Strait, near the northern end of Mitkof Island, Alexander Archipelago, near latitude 57°, longitude 133°;

Wrangell: at the northern end of Wrangell Island, Alexander Archipelago, near latitude 56°, 28′, longitude 132° 23′;

Klinquan: on the western shore of Long Island, Cordova Bay, Alexander Archipelago, near latitude 55°, longitude 132°;

Jackson: (Howkan); on Long Island, Cordova Bay, Alexander Archipelago, near latitude 55°, longitude 133°.

WARREN G HARDING

THE WHITE HOUSE,
December 14, 1921.

[No. 3588.]