Executive Order

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress entitled, "An Act to give effect to the Convention between the Governments of the United States, Great Britain, Japan and Russia, for the preservation and protection of the fur seals and sea otters which frequent the waters of the North Pacific Ocean, concluded at Washington July 7, 1911," approved August 24, 1912, as well as by virtue of any and all other acts of Congress conferring authority upon me in the premises, I hereby order and direct

1. That the Bureau of Fisheries patrol boats Widgeon, Murre, Auklet, Petrel, Eider, and Kittiwake patrol the waters frequented by the seal herd or herds and sea otter in the protection of which the United States is especially interested.

2. That the masters of these vessels and Dennis Winn, Agent, Edward M. Ball, Assistant Agent, Shirley A. Baker, Assistant Agent, Lemuel G. Wingard, Assistant Agent, Michael J. O'Connor, Warden, William E. Baumann, Warden, and Charles Petry, Warden, are hereby designated and authorized to search any vessel of the United States in port or in territorial waters of the United States or on the high seas when suspected of having violated or being about to violate the provisions of the Convention between the Governments of the United States, Great Britain, Japan and Russia, concluded at Washington July 7, 1911, or the said Act of August 24, 1912, or of any regulation made thereunder, and to seize such vessel and the officers and crew thereof and bring them into the most accessible port of the Territory of Alaska or the States of California, Oregon or Washington, for trial.
