Executive Order.

WHEREAS, by proclamation of the Acting Governor of the Territory of Hawaii of June 10, 1901, certain land in the District of Kona, Island of Oahu, known as Kewalo-uka, was, pursuant to Section 91 of the Act of Congress approved April 30, 1900 (31 Stat. L. 141), entitled "An Act To provide a government for the Territory of Hawaii", set aside for the use of the United States as an agricultural experiment station; and

WHEREAS, an official survey shows that a residence and other buildings and appurtenances located on Tantalus Ridge, as hereinafter described, are partly within said experiment station; and

WHEREAS, a proposal has been made to exchange said residence and other buildings and appurtenances and all private right, title and interest to the land upon which they are located for two certain parcels of land hereinafter described, now within the boundaries of said experiment station; and

WHEREAS, said land, residence and other buildings and appurtenances will be useful to the Department of Agriculture in the prosecution of its experiments, and said exchange will greatly facilitate the administration of said experiment station:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CALVIN COOLIDGE, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power vested in me by Section 91 of said Act of April 30, 1900, as amended by Section 7 of the Act of May 27, 1900 (36 Stat. L. 447), entitled "An Act To amend an Act entitled 'An Act to provide a government for the Territory of Hawaii', approved April thirtieth, nineteen hundred," do proclaim that the order creating said experiment station is hereby modified so as to admit of the patenting of said two parcels of land, as hereinafter described, by the proper officials of the Territory of Hawaii, in exchange for said residence and other buildings and appurtenances, together with the land upon which they are located. The tract of land upon which said residence and other buildings and appurtenances are located is described as:

Being a portion of the Land of Auwaiolimu, Honolulu, Oahu, T. H., beginning at a pipe in a concrete monument on the boundary between the Lands of Auwaiolimu and Kewalo, and at the South corner of the piece of land, the co-ordinates of said pipe in a concrete monument referred to Government Survey Triangulation Station "Punchbowl" being 4632.21 feet North and 6354.33 feet East and running by true azimuths:

1—172° 28′ 41.13 feet along the remainder of the land of Auwaiolimu to a pipe;
