Executive Order

revoked by E.O. 9804

THE ALASKA RAILROAD

Upon the recommendation of the Secretary of the Interior, and pursuant to authority contained in section forty-two of "An Act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the performance of their duties, and for other purposes," (Public No. 267—64th Congress, 39 Stat., p. 742), approved September 7, 1916, and section five of Joint Resolution "For the relief of special disbursing agents of the Alaskan Engineering Commission, authorizing the payment of certain claims, and for other purposes, affecting the management of the Alaska Railroad," (H. J. Res. 226, 68th Congress) approved March 4, 1925, the powers and duties heretofore exercised by the Chairman of the Alaskan Engineering Commission in connection with the Employees Compensation Act, insofar as the employees of The Alaska Railroad are concerned, are hereby transferred to the General Manager of the Alaska Railroad. The expenses of medical examinations under sections twenty-one and twenty-two, and the reasonable traveling and other expenses and loss of wages payable to employees under section twenty-one, will be paid out of appropriations for The Alaska Railroad.

The General Manager of the Alaska Railroad will pay the compensation provided by the Employees Compensation Act, including the medical, surgical and hospital services and supplies provided by section nine and the transportation and burial expenses provided by sections nine and eleven of said Act, out of the Alaska Railroad Fund, such fund to be reimbursed for such payments by transfer of funds from the employees' compensation fund.
