AUTHORIZING THE ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN TO SELL CERTAIN PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE

By virtue of the authority vested in me by an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to define, regulate, and punish trading with the Enemy and for other purposes", approved October 6, 1917, known as the "Trading with the Enemy Act", and the amendment to such Act embodied in "An Act making appropriations to supply urgent deficiencies in the appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, and prior fiscal years on account of war expenses and for other purposes", approved March 28, 1918, and the Amendment to such Act embodied in "An Act making appropriations to supply deficiencies in appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, and prior fiscal years on account of war expenses, and for other purposes", approved November 4, 1918, and all other amendments thereto, to make certain orders such as that herein contained, I hereby, in the public interest, make the following determination and order:

The Alien Property Custodian is hereby authorized to sell at private sale, at such time and place as to him or to his authorized agent may seem advisable, without public or other advertisement, 4050 shares of stock of Banco Mexicano de Comercio e Industria of the City of Mexico, which said bank is now in a state of liquidation and upon which liquidation dividend payments were made during the year 1924, at a price of 25 pesos per share for each and every share of said stock, and which said shares were heretofore seized by the Alien Property Custodian as the property of the Deutsche Bank of Berlin, Germany.

My reasons for the foregoing determination and order are:

(a) That property such as that herein described cannot usually be sold to advantage at public sale after public or other advertisement.

(b) That an advantageous offer for the purchase of said shares of stock has been received by the Alien Property Custodian.

(c) That the owner or owners of said property at the time of the seizure thereof by the Alien Property Custodian, have consented to the sale of said property by the Alien Property Custodian.

(d) That the stock is of an issue of a Mexican Bank which is in process of liquidation. The delays which must ensue in connection with the further liquidation of the assets make action now desirable. The amount which might eventually be realized, owing to the speculative character of many of the obligations, and the further expense of liquidation, is uncertain. It appears from the above reasons to be for the best interests of all concerned that said stock be now sold in accordance with the terms of this order.
