BUREAU
28 1925
of State

The Department of State,
Washington,
July 27, 1925.

ORDER

By direction of the President, the undersigned is charged with the sad duty of announcing the death, on July 26, 1925, at Dayton, Tennessee, of William Jennings Bryan, a distinguished citizen of the United States, formerly a Representative in Congress from the State of Nebraska, a Colonel in the Spanish-American War, and Secretary of State.

In all these capacities his services were characterized by a faithfulness to duty and a devotion to the public interest. His private life was one for the emulation of all American citizens. Thrice the nominee of a great political party, his death will be especially mourned by a large personal following who held him in affectionate esteem.

As a testimony of this respect, it is ordered by the President that the National Flag be displayed at half-staff on the National buildings at Washington on the date of the funeral.
