Mrs. Barbara Glascock may be employed as stenographer and typewriter in the Eleventh Naval District, San Diego, California, without regard to the examination requirements of the Civil Service Act and rules.

This order is issued upon recommendation of the Secretary of the Navy. Mrs. Glascock's husband, Lieutenant Turner A. Glascock, met his death in the line of duty, leaving Mrs. Glascock without means of support when the submarine S–51 sank on September 25, 1925.

The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur in this recommendation.

Done for charity.
