Executive Order

It is hereby ordered that on December 24, 1926, beginning with the time fixed by the heads of the executive establishments for entering on duty, and exclusive of time for luncheon, four hours shall constitute a day's work for all clerks and other employees of the Federal Government and the Government of the District of Columbia, in the said District of Columbia.

Provided, however, that this order shall not apply to any bureau or office of the Federal Government, or the District of Columbia, or to any of the clerks or per diem employees thereof, that may for special public reasons be excepted therefrom by the head of the Department or establishment having supervision or control of such bureau or office, or where the same would be inconsistent with the provisions of existing law.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
December 14, 1926.

[No. 4553]

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
Washington December 16, 1926.

Respectfully referred to the Commissioner of the General Land Office for information and guidance.

W. B. Acker
Chief Clerk.
