Executive Order

It is hereby ordered that the lands of the United States bordering upon or near the Savannah River in the State of South Carolina, situated within the area segregated by the broken line upon the diagram hereto attached and made a part of this order, be and the same are hereby reserved and set apart for the use of the Department of Agriculture as a preserve and breeding ground for native birds, subject to future use in aid of navigation, if necessary, and to valid existing rights, if any.

It is unlawful for any person to hunt, trap, capture, willfully disturb, or kill any bird or wild animal of any kind whatever, or take or destroy the eggs of any such bird within the limits of this reserve, except under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Warning is expressly given to all persons not to commit any of the acts herein enumerated, under the penalties prescribed by Section 84 of the United States Criminal Code, approved March 4, 1909, (35 Stat., 1088) as amended by the act approved April 15, 1924 (43 Stat., 98).

This reservation shall be known as the Savannah River Bird Refuge.
