Executive Order

Miss Florence J. Howell may be appointed to a clerkship in the United States Customs Court without compliance with the requirements of the Civil Service Act and Rules.

This order is recommended by the Secretary of the Treasury in recognition of the long, faithful, and distinguished service of Miss Howell's brother, Judge William B. Howell, whose death, April 4, 1927, as Chief Justice of the United States Customs Court, terminated a continuous service for the Treasury Department which began June 6, 1882. Judge Howell supported his sister and his mother, who is now eighty-eight years of age, and their support and that of his widow and her mother now devolves upon Miss Howell.

For charity.
