Executive Order

Executive Order No. 4352, dated December 5, 1925, is hereby amended by striking out the first paragraph and substituting therefor the following:

Pursuant to authority contained in Section 4 of the Act of Congress approved May 26, 1906, relating to punishments in the Revenue-Cutter Service, and extended by Section 2 of the Act of Congress approved January 28, 1915, to the United States Coast Guard, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make the necessary arrangements with the Secretary of the Navy so that any naval prison or naval station may be designated as the place of execution of a sentence of a Coast Guard court involving imprisonment or confinement.
