Executive Order

The Executive Orders, dated October 3, 1924 (No. 4081), April 10, 1925 (No. 4197), April 10, 1925 (No. 4200), and April 10, 1925 (No. 4193), establishing as national forests, pursuant to the provisions of Section 9 of the Act of Congress approved June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 655), certain described areas within the respective military reservations of Fort Benning, Georgia, Fort Eustis, Virginia, Camp Meade, Maryland, and Pine Plains, New York, are hereby rescinded and the said national forests are restored to their former status as parts of the said military reservations and are no longer subject to use and administration for national forest purposes.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
December 2, 1927.

[No. 4776]

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

December 10, 1927

A true copy.

Acting Chief, Division of Publications.