Executive Order

WHEREAS the corporate life of the United States Grain Corporation expired according to the terms of its charter on August 14, 1922; and

WHEREAS since the expiration of said charter the officers of said corporation have been collecting its assets and liquidating its obligations, and there remains nothing further to be done by said corporation and its officers, except to pay the remaining assets thereof to its stockholder, United States of America; and

WHEREAS said corporation has fully accounted for all its acts and for all the funds which have come into its hands, showing the disposition thereof and the balance on hand;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CALVIN COOLIDGE, President of the United States, pursuant to the power and authority conferred on me by law, and as holder of all the issued and outstanding capital stock of the United States Grain Corporation, do hereby approve, ratify, confirm and adopt all the acts of the said United States Grain Corporation and of the officers and directors thereof, and I do hereby approve, ratify, confirm and adopt the final accounting of the property and funds of said corporation and the disposition thereof as shown by the audited accounts submitted by Edward M. Flesh, President, Treasurer and Liquidating Trustee of said corporation; and I do order and direct that Edward M. Flesh, as Liquidating Trustee of said corporation, pay the balance in its hands, amounting to the sum of $115,419.98, into the Treasury of the United States, in full and final settlement, liquidation and dissolution of said corporation and in full and final payment to its stockholder, United States of America.

And I do further order and direct that all the records, books of account and files of the United States Food Administration and of the United States Wheat Director heretofore held in the custody of said corporation, pursuant to Executive Order, and all the records, books of account and files of said corporation be transferred and delivered to and shall be preserved by the Department of Commerce as custodian thereof, until the completion of a building to be used for the permanent housing of Government records, when the Department of Commerce shall deliver all said records, books of account and files into said building and into the custody of the official in charge thereof.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

DONE this 31st day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand [SEAL] nine hundred and twenty-seven and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty-second.

CALVIN COOLIDGE
