Executive Order

Mrs. Marian H. Boothe may be reinstated in the classified service as a stenographer and typewriter under the Navy Department, without regard to the length of her separation from the service.

She served as a stenographer and typewriter in the Interior Department from 1918 to 1922 when she resigned, having married Ensign Eaton Alexander Boothe who met his death in the line of duty, as a Lieutenant in the United States Navy, September 7, 1927, in an airplane accident near Palmdale, California.

This order is recommended by the Secretary of the Navy. The Civil Service Commission submits the case without prejudice.

For charity.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
March 2, 1928.
